PSL/33-CM–Marine

Issue 2 dated 1st January 2022

Verification of Identity

This form is for the verification of PCN elected officials (examiners, invigilators, coordinators) or for holders of PCN condition monitoring or marine certificates and wallet cards bearing a recent photograph of the holder. In all circumstances the person completing this form will provide two passport photographs. In order that PCN may issue a wallet card, the applicant is required to sign, in the presence of a witness, this verification of identity, and to sign, in the presence of the same witness, the reverse of two passport photographs of the applicant. This form and photographs are to be returned to PCN with the application forms [PSL56-CM and PSL62] for condition monitoring examination or marine MMCM assessment.

WARNING. Any proven case of forgery or misrepresentation will result in the cancellation of all PCN certification, and the offender will be prohibited from regaining any PCN certification for a period of not less than one year.
