17. Setting up a New Branch

It is encouraged that Members who are in an area where there isn’t an easily accessible BINDT Branch, should consider the possibility of setting up a new Branch.

17.1 If a new Branch is being contemplated, the following list should be considered:

- Are there enough Members in the surrounding area to justify a new Branch?
- Where would you meet?
- Should you hold your meetings in a social environment until it is fully established?
- Is there a sponsor (company) willing to host your meetings once you become more formalised?
- Are there other institutes in the area that could be invited to your meetings?
- Are there people willing to be on the Branch Committee when it is established?
- Do you need help from BINDT?

17.2 Once you have decided to set up a new Branch, you should keep it informal until such times that you collectively agree to formalise the Branch structure.

17.3 An informal new Branch will be entitled to the support and facilities of an existing established Branch.

17.4 Once you have convened a new Branch (albeit informally) you should register the Branch name with BINDT Membership Department.

17.5 BINDT anticipates that you would formalise the structure of the Branch within a two-year period of registration.

17.6 A formalised Branch Committee should include the following positions:

- Chair
- Vice Chair
- Honorary Secretary
- Honorary Treasurer
- Programme Secretary
- Welfare representative
- Branch representative on Council

18. BINDT Support

If viable, BINDT will support any initiative to set up a new Branch.
